Koelnmesse:

Catja Caspary becomes new Head of Home and Garden business division

An experienced manager from within our own ranks

Effective 01.06.2017, Catja Caspary (37) will be the new Head of the trade fair business division Home and Garden at Koelnmesse. With this, the business administration graduate takes over responsibility for the INTERNATIONAL HARDWARE FAIR COLOGNE, Asia-Pacific Sourcing, spoga+gafa, spoga horse, h+h cologne and TAG DES GARTENS within the Cologne trade fair portfolio.

Ms. Caspary reports directly to Managing Director Katharina C. Hamma.

"We are delighted to have found a dedicated and committed manager with a wealth of experience in the trade fair business from within our own ranks with Catja Caspary," says Gerald Böse, Chairman of the Board of Management of Koelnmesse.

From 2005 to 2007, Catja Caspary worked in Visitor Services at Koelnmesse. In 2012, she took over as group leader for Event Design in the central area of Marketing Communication. Since 2016 she has been group leader for Communication Management.

At the beginning of 2017, as part of a restructuring measure, Koelnmesse extended its responsibility for its event program from four to five trade fair business divisions. As a result of the ongoing trends towards DIY and home improvement, the area of Home and Garden is attributed with great potential for growth.

The Management Board of Koelnmesse wishes Ms. Caspary all the best and every success in her new role.
