Koelnmesse:

Alexander Wolff is Director of CCXP Cologne - Comic Con Experience

As Director of the CCXP Comic Con Experience Cologne (27-30 June 2019), Alexander Wolff (44) will be in charge of project management for this new highlight hosted for all comic, sci-fi and superhero fans in Germany and Europe in the media centre of Cologne. Previously, he was Director of INDICOM at Koelnmesse. Wolff particularly brings his experience in placing new events.

Alexander Wolff will drive and grow CCXP Cologne in the years ahead. "He has demonstrated impressive strategic and conceptual strengths in our field of expertise in digital media and entertainment. That is why we are delighted to entrust him with this new event with its tremendous public appeal. With him, the future of CCXP Cologne is in the best of hands", Gerald Böse, President and Chief Executive Officer of Koelnmesse remarked.

Before embarking upon his career with Koelnmesse GmbH as a Sales Manager in July 2006, Alexander Wolff worked as a sales manager for Düsseldorf-based Reed Exhibitions Deutschland GmbH. At Koelnmesse, he trained to become a Project Manager and proceeded to gain several years' experience as Director of TAG DES GARTENS and INDICOM. This made him instrumental in helping to position new events within the trade fair programme in Cologne.

The Management Board of Koelnmesse wishes Alexander Wolff every success in his new role.
