DIGILITY - The largest Conference for Digital Realities in Central Europe Celebrates its 2nd Edition

#AR #VR #MR #DIGILITY17

From 5th to 6th of July, the second edition of DIGILITY conference and expo will once again focus on the topics of augmented and virtual reality, mixed reality, wearable computing, 360 ° imaging, 3-D developments and artificial intelligence. Following last year's successful premiere with 1,000 international attendees from 32 countries, Koelnmesse is pushing forward investments in new developments, fast-growing digital markets and the NRW location with a massively expanded exhibition, with an international speaker line-up and an extended event program. More than 70 international renowned speakers will present their visions, practical applications for VR/AR/MR and give insights into immersive technologies and innovations. The full agenda of DIGILITY can be found here.

Highlights:

- 2 conference days, 4 tracks, 70+ speaker and 125+ partners
- Opening Keynote Day 1: Jody Medich „Making Superhumans: The future of Human Machine Interfaces“
- Opening Keynote Day 2: Prof. Mel Slater „Use Virtual Reality for a Change“
- 65+ exhibitors are presenting on 2000 sqm expo area (brutto) - Central Europe's biggest expos for AR/VR/MR. Visitors of DIGILITY can try our various applications from automotive to entertainment, education, consulting and research and get informed about the latest software and hardware solutions.
- 32-hours-hackathon: Around 50 smart minds will work together on the topic of „Collaboration in Virtual Reality“ - with our mentors from Audi (main sponsor), Vectorform, HTC VIVE, Samsung, XMG, INCAS, Unity, Photon, ManusVR und Salt and Pepper
